TO-MORROW.

BEAT HER WITH A HAMMER. TO CONSECRATE A BISHOP.

Piano-Maker Keok Charged with Brutality to His Little Girl.

She and Her Brothers Taken in Charge by the Children's Society.

Caroline Keok, a sad-faced girl of thirteen whose back and arms are covered with bruises, and her two brothers, Joseph and Alexander, aged twelve and seven years respectively, were committed to the care of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children by Justice Weide, in the Harlem Police court today. They are alleged victims of brutality.

Joseph Keok, their father, is a piano-maker, living at 523 East One Hundred and Fifteenth street. According to the girl, she was beaten by him with a hammer about her arms and body on the 10th and 20th of April, the first time because she lost the room doorknob and again because she had failed to say "good-by" to a visitor.

Mr. Louis Keok, the mother of the children, died on Washington's birthday of heart disease; since then Keok, it is said, has neglected and beaten his children, sometimes without the slightest reason.

Last Wednesday evening a female friend of Keok's paid a visit to the home, and the children did not like the visitor, and when she finally left they did not bid her good-by. For that trivial reason, it is alleged, Keok gave his children a terrible beating, and would up with his brutality, it is said, by punishing Caroline with a hammer until she was back and blue.

Keok's cries on this occasion were heard by neighbors, who interfered and made the father stop by threatening him with arrest. Yesterday Agents McManus and Moore, of the Children's Society, heard of the case and they took the children away.

On the evidence of the children Justice Weide issued a warrant for Keok's arrest.

CHARLES D. SMITH'S SUICIDE.

It Occurred at the Close of a Tour Around the World.

The suicide of Charles D. Smith, of New York, at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, is announced today. Mr. Smith was one of the sons of the proprietor of the old Watson House, at Babylon, L. I.

His brother, Augustus C. Smith, is Secretary of the Hygiene Distilled Water Company, of this city. He is a resident of Babylon, where Charles D. Smith also made his home.

The suicide had been traveling around the world. He arrived at San Francisco on the China steamer on March 27. Since his arrival in San Francisco he had been spending the money freely, and seemed to be well provided with cash.

Later, it is said, his health had been poor and he seemed very much depressed. He was found by one of the servants yesterday morning lying on the floor in his room at the Palace Hotel with a bullet wound in his left breast. He left nothing to explain the motive for his act.

The Mitre to Be Conferred on Father McDonnell Monday.

Magnificent Ceremonials Precede His Installation in Brooklyn's Diocese.

Active preparations are being made in Catholic circles today for the ceremonies of consecration of Rev. Dr. McDonnell, the newly appointed bishop of Brooklyn, which takes place in St. Patrick's cathedral on Fifth avenue, Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

The event promises to be one of the most important in Catholic ecclesiastical history of this city by reason of the fact that it will bring together prominent clergymen from all parts of the country.

Fifty-five thousand invitations have been sent out by Father Lavelle, rector of the cathedral, who has charge of all the arrangements for the ceremonial, and it is believed that the affair will by its brilliancy eclipse everything of a like nature that has ever occurred in this country.

The consecration ceremonies will be performed by Archbishop Corrigan, assisted by Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester, and Bishop Chatard, of Vincennes, Ind., formerly rector of the American College at Rome, who ordained the bishop-elect a priest May 15, 1878.

A pontifical high mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Corrigan, immediately after which the mitre will be conferred on the new bishop with impressive ceremonies.

Dr. McDonnell will return to this city tomorrow from Key West, where he has been making a tour of inspection of the diocese.

NEW RAILROAD FRANCHISE.

The West Side Company Will Ask It from the Aldermen.

Application will be made to the Board of Aldermen, probably at its next meeting, by the West Side Railroad company, which has been incorporated at Albany, for a franchise to operate a street surface road on the following proposed route:

From the foot of West Twenty-third street and North River, thence easterly, with a double track, through Twenty-third street to Eleventh avenue, to Sixty-fourth street; thence, with double track, northerly, through West End avenue to Sixty-sixth street; and with single track through Sixty-sixth street to Sixty-seventh street, returning with single track, westerly, through Sixty-seventh street to West End avenue, to Sixty-sixth street, and thence from the double track at Sixty-seventh street and Columbus avenue, northerly, along Columbus avenue to One Hundred and Tenth street, and westerly along One Hundred and Tenth street to Riverside drive.

The length of the road will be five miles. The proposed route is shown on a map, which is being distributed to the directors and the directors are W. W. Seaborn, August L. Martin, John Byrne, John C. Turner, John M. Smith, John H. Hyatt, John A. Bowers, Frank S. Smith and George H. Patton, all of whom reside in New York except Mr. Hyatt, who is a Philadelphia resident.

Young Mrs. Blaine sails away. A passenger not noticed in the printed edition of the French line steamer La Bretagne, which sailed for Havre at 4 o'clock this morning, was Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., now Mrs. Marie Nevins, who accompanied her cousin Mr. Charles Macmillan and his wife, of Philadelphia, on a six weeks' tour on the continent.

Young Mrs. Blaine at first declined the invitation of the Macmillans, but at the final moment, last night, yielded and her baggage was accordingly removed to the ship.

She accompanied her father-in-law, Mr. Nevins, this morning, in the hope that her health would be improved by the trip.

She is believed to be suffering from a severe case of rheumatism, and it is thought that the trip will be of great benefit to her.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Blaine, Jr., threatened to give all the love letters of her husband to the press if the Secretary refused to accept a certain period to publish in full certain letters of hers from which he quoted extracts in his "personal statement" issued in relation to the divorce proceedings.

That was on March 1, and the period of grace expired ten days later. No letters have appeared since from young Mrs. Blaine.

Comic opera purveyors are at present very hard up. Not only will the advance of comic opera fall upon this city during the summer, but it threatens to swamp a number of towns in the country.

The last but one of the Hamrick concerts will occur at Music Hall to-morrow night. The soloists will be Mrs. Clementine de Vere, soprano, and the recent addition to the name, and Mrs. Sofia Seashell, who will sing, "An Echo of the Past."

The symphony orchestra, under the direction of Arthur Nikisch, Mr. and Mrs. Henschel will be the soloists.

MUSICAL NOTES.

The last concert of the Metropolitan Musical Society for the season will be given at Music Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Mr. William H. Chapman will conduct the chorus of 350 voices, which will be accompanied by full orchestra. The soloists will be Miss Margaret Reid and Alexander Lambert.

Among the interesting features of the program may be noted the grand chorus from Wagner's "Tannhauser." "Thanks be to God," by Mendelssohn, and "Lullaby," a new composition by W. H. Chapman.

The Orpheus Society will give its last private concert of the season next Saturday evening at the concert hall in Madison Square Garden. Under the able leadership of Mr. Arthur Nees the club has made wonderful progress during the past season and its entertainments are always delightful.

Sig. Valero, the little Spanish tenor of Mr. Abbey's troupe, who sailed for Europe this week, pointed during the latter part of his stay in this city by the instruction of Sig. Emilio Belari, his fellow-countryman, with whom he studied the role of Edgardo in "Lucia," in which he was so successful an appearance with Mme. Patti. He had never before sung the part in public. Critical listeners noted the great improvement in his style and tone.

Padervski has started a piano craze, and pianists are now booming up in all directions. The latest is Carlos Lucio, who will make his first appearance at Beck's Hall, 81 Fifth avenue, Tuesday evening. He will be assisted by Xavier Schenkens, Pedro H. de Salazar and Mme. de Salazar.

Mme. Marie Ritter-Götte will give a "song recital" at the Madison Square Garden concert Hall April 27, with Max Spicker at the piano. Her program will include a number of songs, and will consist of music by Schubert, Schumann, Spohr, Brahms, Franz and Jensen.

Black Patti, and ahem!—white Patti are both announced as coming events at the Madison Square Garden. The latter, the said soprano, will be heard April 29, 27 and 28, while Adelina, the white and only one, will appear May 10, May 12 and May 14.

George Vanderbilts Buying Tacoma Property.

George W. Vanderbilt, according to the Tacoma Ledger, of Tacoma, Wash., has just paid $165,000 in cash for a business block in that city. It is a six-story structure of pressed brick and was erected by the Pacific Coast Building Co., of Tacoma.

It is said that the block will be used as a warehouse for the export of lumber, and that it will be one of the finest buildings in the city.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

President Curtis, of the A. A. Union, Uses His Official Axe.

Glauchs and Senators Open Home Season with Two Games To-Day.

President W. B. Curtis, of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, has dropped his official axe on the necks of 300 so-called amateur boxers. He held a glorious slaughter with the head of Management of the Association, under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union, at the Astor House last night, and every boxer at whom the finger of suspicion pointed was suspended from the ranks of amateurs.

The movement that found its climax in last night's work has been under way for years. Because some 300 men have been suspended by the Association, under the amateur law for boxing at exhibitions which in themselves have been suspected of being of color it does not follow that all the men are guilty. Nor do the officials of the union say they are.

It has been a common saying of late that such a thing as an amateur boxer does not exist. The Association, however, has given a chance to prove the genuineness of this assertion. It is confidently expected that the action last night will take on the nature of a sifting process. The habitual money-takers who cannot show up a large number of medals and tell straight stories will be kept out of the amateur ranks, while the others will get back again in time.

It is a long while since the Metropolitan Association had as clever a roster of boxers as it has to-day. There are several prominent athletes who, in talking about the whole case, have expressed themselves as wonder at the action, and have suggested for taking money while the clubs giving the money have been allowed to go free. They claim that the good work should not be allowed to stop with the boxers.

The Glauchs did not play ball yesterday. Preparations were made for a grand opening demonstration for the season will be given at Music Hall on Tuesday evening next.
